

Chess2All

Chess & Writing Charity Camp

6/29-6/30

 All course work and lessons will be recorded and sent out *****

To Learn More and Register : <https://chess2all.weebly.com/2020-chess--writing-camp.html>

Objectives of Chess Camp:

- Get ready for tournament play
- Apply the 3 MOST principles in chess.
- Familiarize with tactic types (skewers, smothered mate, zugzwang, underpromotion,etc)
- Develop an opening repertoire
- Learn Basic Endgame Knowledge
- Apply “critical thinking skills” and how to “assess” positions based on understanding rather than memorizing. (positional understanding)
- Player evaluation and FAQ on “How to improve in chess”

Objectives of Writing Camp:

- Understand powerful rhetorical devices
- Learn how to create in-depth and relatable characters
- Create a setting and background full of imagery
- Craft an understandable and coherent storyline
- Understand how to convey a message/emotion through writing
- Familiarize with common writing mistakes
- Craft a moving and engaging piece

Monday (6/29):

10:00AM - 10:20 AM Introduction and gets students registered on Lichess Chess2All Team

10:20 AM - 11 AM Simul with Coach
(Evaluate Students Strengths/Weakness and Engage Students Interests)

11 AM- 12 AM Group Lecture

12 AM - 1 PM Introduce/Lecture on Common Tactics and puzzle competition.

1 AM - 2 PM Lunch Break

2:00 - 2:15 Introduction to Writing portion of camp

2:15- 3:00 Lesson on Writing Technique (how to create a powerful piece)

3:00- 3:45 Create an outline of your piece (storyline, characters, setting, etc...)

3:45- 4:30 Beginning writing your piece using Writing Technique

TUESDAY (6/30):

10:00AM - 11 AM Group Lecture (Develop Opening Repertoire)

11 AM - 12 AM Pair Players up based on skill level and play G/30.

12 AM- 1 PM Review Games and Group Lecture on “How to improve”

1 PM - 2 PM Lunch Break

2:00-3:00 Begin Writing Lesson

3:00-3:15 Revise outline of piece

3:15-4:30 Finish writing piece